Gadam, Dr. Manohar Motwani, Dr. Karthikeya Bhagat, and Dr. Rajkumar Shah. The entire academic session is expected to conclude within two and a half hours.

Dr. Anurag Bhate informed the house that he had invited Dr. Makrand Rane, a physician specializing in obstetric emergencies, to join the symposium webinar. Dr. Jayanti Kamat supported the suggestion and appreciated his experience at Fernandes Hospital and current association with Cloud9 Hospital. It was decided that Dr. Rane would be formally invited and introduced during the program.

Dr. Anurag Bhate further shared plans to expand future RAN Symposiums at a national level by involving faculty and DNB students from medical colleges across India. Members appreciated the initiative and congratulated the team for the vision.

Dr. Nitin Shah suggested obtaining recordings of the symposium from Clirnet and uploading them on the AFG YouTube channel. Dr. Anurag Bhate informed the house that discussions with the new Clirnet management are ongoing and the previous symposium recordings will also be uploaded soon.

Dr. R.M. Saraogi expressed concern regarding poor attendance of managing committee members at meetings, CMEs, and symposiums. He emphasized that committee members should attend at least 50% of academic activities and suggested maintaining attendance records for CMEs similar to managing committee meetings. Several members agreed that accountability and active participation are important for future leadership within the association.

Dr. Ankesh Sahetya raised concerns regarding lack of decorum during conferences, especially due to noise and disturbance caused by pharma representatives and attendees outside the auditorium. Members suggested better hall management and assigning dedicated responsibilities to managing committee members during conferences for registration, guest management, audio-visual coordination, and overall discipline.

The house agreed that greater involvement and responsibility among managing committee members is essential for the smooth conduct and success of future academic programs. Dr. Anurag Bhate concluded by requesting all members to actively participate and support the association's activities with commitment and responsibility.

Dr. Anurag Bhate informed the house about the upcoming Medical Legal CME scheduled on 19th July 2026. Dr. Ashok Shukla, Convener of the conference, shared that the date was shifted from 12th July to 19th July due to the availability of Dr. Hitesh Bhat, who has always actively participated in AFG medical legal programs.

Dr. Ashok Shukla informed that the topics are currently under discussion and will be finalized shortly. One of the proposed topics is consent, especially in view of recent judgments regarding pre-printed consent formats. Another proposed session is a live demonstration of a Maharashtra Medical Council case or maternal mortality inquiry, explaining police procedures, statements, and cross-examinations.

The concept of a “reverse panel” was also discussed, where panelists ask practical medico-legal questions and experts provide legal guidance and clarification. Members appreciated the idea as it allows discussion of real-life day-to-day medico-legal challenges faced by doctors.

It was further suggested that doctors who recently faced medico-legal or police-related issues may be invited to briefly share their experiences. Another important topic proposed was handling medico-legal issues related to underage girls seeking MTPs and the legal responsibilities regarding police intimation.

The house appreciated the proposed format and agreed that the CME would be highly relevant and beneficial for practicing gynecologists.

Dr. Anurag Bhat informed the house about the upcoming Critical Care CME scheduled on 2nd August 2026 in collaboration with anesthetists. The conference will focus on managing obstetric emergencies such as PPH, amniotic fluid embolism, laparoscopy and hysteroscopy-related complications, and fluid overload. The aim is to understand the coordination between gynecologists and anesthetists during critical situations.

Dr. Rakesh Pandia, Convener from AFG, shared that Dr. Kalpesh Shah will be the co-convener from the anesthetists’ association. He explained that anesthetists are often the first responders during obstetric emergencies and the CME will focus on early management, stabilization, transfer protocols, and teamwork between specialties.

The program will include lectures by senior obstetricians and Anesthetists, followed by an extensive panel discussion with experts from teaching institutes, tertiary care hospitals, and private practice. Topics planned from the Anesthesia side include “The First 10 Minutes Matter” and “Recent Advances in Obstetric Anesthesia – What Every Obstetrician Should Know.”

Dr. Anurag Bhat also highlighted the importance of CPR in pregnant women, which differs from routine CPR. A practical workshop using maternal mannequins is being planned to train participants in emergency obstetric CPR and drills. Members suggested including practical obstetric drills such as PPH, eclampsia, shoulder dystocia, and abruption management. Dr. Raju Sahetia emphasized the importance of pre-operative counseling by anesthetists and proper pre-operative preparation protocols from a medico-legal perspective.

Dr. Vidya Bandukwalla suggested including discussion on blood products and emergency management in cases of placental abruption. Dr. Manohar Motwani advised incorporating such scenarios into the panel discussion.

Dr. Rakesh Pandia requested all managing committee members to actively contribute suggestions for lecture topics and panel discussions. It was also decided to assign committee members specific responsibilities for the Medical Legal CME and Critical Care CME to ensure smooth organization and better participation.

Dr. Jayanti Kamat informed the house about the upcoming International Yoga Day program scheduled on 21st June 2026 at Hotel Aurika from 8:00 AM to 9:30 AM.

He also acknowledged the support of AMC, Dr. Rajendra Nagarkatti, and the Mira Bhayander society members for contributing to the successful conduct of the program.

8) Treasurer's Report by Dr. Komal Chavan.

Dr. Komal Chavan presented the Treasurer's Report for the period from the last meeting in May till 10th June 2026. She informed the house that the opening balance in the HDFC Bank account was approximately Rs.18.17 lakhs. During this period, total credits were Rs.2,04,200 and total debits were Rs.2,37,374, resulting in a closing balance of Rs.18,38,704.

The major credits included sponsorship support and annual membership fees, while the major expenditures were payments made to Versatile Rocks and venue-related expenses at Radisson Hotel. The house appreciated that despite regular expenditures, the association continues to maintain a healthy financial balance.

Dr. Anurag Bhate informed the house that the association has already crossed 105 annual registered members, with expectations of reaching nearly 125 memberships shortly. He stated that this would generate an estimated revenue of around Rs.9 to Rs.9.5 lakhs, which would further strengthen the association financially.

Members also shared updates regarding sponsorships received from various companies including Universal Nutriscience, Koe Pharma, Abbott, Karl Storz, Emcure, and Zydus. Additional funds from Sun Pharma, MOC, and other sponsors are expected in the coming months.

Dr. Anurag Bhate further informed the house that the process for obtaining the 12-A registration is underway. Once completed, the GST registration process will also move forward.

9) Any other matter with the permission of the chair.

Dr. Riddhi Desai raised a concern regarding technical issues at Radisson Hotel, particularly the difficulty in connecting MacBooks to the audio-visual system during CME programs. She mentioned that this caused delays in starting the previous program and suggested that either the AV team should ensure proper compatibility or speakers should be requested to carry presentations on pen drives.

Dr. Bela Bhatt supported the concern and emphasized that since Radisson is the regular venue for association programs, the issue should be permanently resolved.

The house agreed that the matter would be taken up with the Radisson management to ensure better technical arrangements for future programs. The discussion ended on a light note, with members humorously mentioning that the inconvenience was compensated with extra dinner plates from the venue management.

Dr. Jayanti Kamat thanked all the managing committee members for attending the meeting and appreciated the excellent participation throughout the online session.
